

BY-LAWS
Central Ohio Group Fellowship, Inc.
As Amended September 14, 2013

ARTICLE I – PURPOSE

- A. The purpose of the Central Ohio Group Fellowship, Inc., is to carry our certain functions common to all member groups of Alcoholics Anonymous in Central and Southeastern Ohio. These common functions will be those best handled by a centralized office. COGF shall be maintained, supervised and supported by those groups. COGF shall aid in their common purpose of carrying the message to the alcoholic who still suffers.
- B. In this, and all other documents, Central Ohio Group Fellowship, Inc. shall be known as C.O.G.F.
- C. C.O.G.F. recognizes the autonomy of each member group.
- D. C.O.G.F. coordinates and brings to completion projects and policies originating in participating groups and brought to its attention, subject to the approval of the Advisory Board.
- E. C.O.G.F. brings together representatives from member groups through the Intergroup Representative Committee which elects the C.O.G.F. Advisory Board and provides group input and oversight of the Advisory Board.
- F. C.O.G.F. maintains an office for:
 - 1. The reception and diffusion of information and ideas.
 - 2. The furnishing of speakers and program material for participating groups and other groups, when and wherever possible.
 - 3. The providing of means for receiving requests for help, and for arranging 12th Step calls and related activities.
 - 4. Serving as guardian of our Traditions in relation to A.A. members and the general public; recognizing the A.A. program is one of attraction and not promotion.
 - 5. Summing up: The C.O.G.F. is the “service agency” for Member A.A. Groups, and for the general public.
- G. C.O.G.F.’s policies and practices should always adhere to the spiritual principles embodied in the Twelve Steps of recovery, the Twelve Traditions of Unity and the Twelve Concepts of Service.

ARTICLE II – MEMBERSHIP

- A. Any Alcoholics Anonymous group holding regular meetings in the general area of Central Ohio may become a member of the C.O.G.F. by submitting an application to the Membership Committee, C.O.G.F. Advisory Board.
- B. Such application shall signify the agreement of the applicant group to assume its share of support in the working of C.O.G.F.
- C. While the C.O.G.F. must of necessity depend upon the member groups to provide the financial support of the Corporation, such support is fully voluntary and a matter of conscience and ability of the member group. In no instance shall financial support be construed in any manner, to be a condition of membership.

ARTICLE III – MEETING OF THE MEMBERS

- A. Regularly scheduled meetings of the members shall be held quarterly during March, June, September, and December. The meeting shall coincide with the IGR meeting. The exact time and location of each meeting should be announced at the Member's Meeting immediately preceding it.
- B. Special meetings may be called by the Chairperson, or in the case of his/her absence, death or disability, by the Co-Chairperson; by the Advisors acting at a meeting, or a majority of the Advisors acting without a meeting; or by ten percent (10%) of the voting members; by written notice given at least ten (10) days before the date of such meeting to each member group by mail at the address of record at the C.O.G.F. Central office. Such notice shall contain a statement of the purpose of the meeting. The Chairperson (or acting Chairperson) must call a meeting at the request of (10%) of the voting members.
- C. Voting: At all meetings of the members, each member group shall be entitled to one (1) vote which shall be cast by the IGR (Intergroup Representative) of the member group on elections and issues brought before the Advisory Board.
- D. That based on past practices, the Board members will continue to vote in all meetings.

ARTICLE IV – ADVISORY BOARD COMMITTEE

- A. THE ADVISORY BOARD: shall consist of a Chairperson, Co-Chairperson, Secretary, Co-Secretary, Treasurer and Co-Treasurer, along with the Chairpersons of the Membership, Service and Social Committee. The Advisory Board can create additional standing committees as it deems necessary. These additional committees will be responsible to the Advisory Board; however, the Chairperson of these committees will not have a vote on the Advisory Board.
- B. TERM OF OFFICE: All positions on the C.O.G.F. Advisory Board are elected for two year terms. In the spirit of A.A.'s principle of rotation, no Officer or Committee Chair shall serve in the same position for two consecutive terms. However, in the event that an individual has been appointed to complete the term of an elected Officer or Committee Chair, and if that appointment was for less than one year, then that individual may subsequently be elected to serve his/her own full, two-year term in that same position. It is strongly recommended that individuals not be elected to the same Officer or Committee Chair position more than once in their life.
- C. ELECTIONS: All members of the Advisory Board will be elected by the Intergroup Representatives (IGRs) attending a Members Meeting using the Third Legacy voting procedure outlined in the Service Manual.
- D. QUALIFICATIONS: An individual should have a period of two (2) years of uninterrupted sobriety in order to be elected to the Advisory Board, or as an Officer. No employee of the Central Ohio Group Fellowship, Inc. Office shall serve on the Advisory Board.
- E. MEETINGS: of the Advisory Board shall be held on the first Sunday after the first Monday in January and on the first Sunday in February, May, August and November. Special meeting may be called upon written notice of the members of the Board; by the Chairperson of the Advisors acting a meeting or by a majority of the Advisors acting without a meeting.
- F. QUORUM: Any meeting of the Advisory Board will require a majority of members present, in order to constitute a quorum, with the Chairperson not included. The Chairperson shall cast the tie breaking vote if necessary.

ARTICLE V – FINANCIAL PRINCIPLES AND POLICIES

- A. C.O.G.F.'s financial policies and practices shall be based on the spiritual principles embodied in A.A.'s Seventh Tradition and Warranties One and Two of Concept XII.
 - 1. C.O.G.F. ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions.
 - 2. C.O.G.F. shall never become the seat of perilous wealth or power.
 - 3. Sufficient operating funds, plus an ample Reserve, should be C.O.G.F.'s prudent financial principle.

- B. The Advisory Board shall exercise its Right of Decision to establish and maintain financial policies and practices based on these principles.
